WHEREAS, the livestock industry is a major segment of South Dakota's economy; and

WHEREAS, the development of new and more productive breeding stock will determine the future strength of this important industry; and

WHEREAS, the simmental breed is among these new and highly promising breeds; and

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Simmental Association will hold its first sale in Aberdeen, South Dakota on December 2, 1972 to be preceded by a social event for interested persons on December 1;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 1st and 2nd, 1972 as

and urge every citizen to take proper recognition of the value of this new breed to the future of the livestock industry of our state.

IN WITNESS WHEREAS, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 27th day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-two.
